Speakers

Archbishop Albert LeGatt, D.D. was born on May 6, 1953 in Melfort, SK studied at Le Collège de St. Boniface (University of Manitoba) obtaining a Bachelor of Arts (with majors in Philosophy and French) in 1974. On July 3, 2009 he was appointed Archbishop of the Archdiocese of St. Boniface, Manitoba.

Fr. Mark Goring, C.C. is a member of the Companions of the Cross and Chaplain at York University, Toronto. Fr. Mark brings energy and enthusiasm to the gospel message, combining straight-forward and humorous delivery with an inspiring depth of faith in Christ. His skill at communicating the gospel to young people has placed him in demand as a youth speaker. He is also an author and appears regularly on “Food for Life” television program.

Fr. Richard McAlear, OMI is very much in demand around the world as a speaker for retreats and conferences. Those who experience his ministry remain deeply moved by the Holy Spirit. He describes his work as a “Ministry of Hope and Healing”. He is the author of several books.

Dr. Mary Shaw, Gainesville, Florida, has received extensive training in healing ministry at many places including Christian Healing Ministries in Jacksonville, ICPE Pastoral Counseling School in Germany, and in the mission field. She often ministers to those who need prayer for inner healing, healing of in-utero wounds, generational healing, healing of abuse, and freedom from demonic oppression.
