A NEW SEASON IN THE SPIRIT

What is the Holy Spirit saying to us in CCR at this time?

At the same time as the Church was being renewed through Vatican II, we saw the emergence of Catholic Charismatic Renewal. Those early years were characterized by a new freedom in the Spirit. There were deep conversions and lives were changed as people received baptism in the Holy Spirit and entered into a 'personal relationship' with Jesus.

When the Israelites were set free from captivity in Egypt they were released into the desert where they remained for 40 years. This was the place of their training and formation. During this time some people fell away either due to sin, lack of perseverance or other distractions. We have seen this in CCR during our short 44 year history. After the desert the Lord led them to the banks of the river Jordan where they could see the Promised Land. I sense that this is where we are at this moment. We are on the threshold of a new season of the Spirit. We need to prepare to cross the Jordan, enter and take possession of the land that the Lord has promised us.

In order to embrace the new season we need to be a people of vision so that we can keep growing and moving forward. Proverbs 29:18 has several English translations e.g., 'without a vision the people perish'. CCR is either growing or dying we can't stand still. In some parts of the world Renewal is dynamic and vibrant. I still have many fond memories, of the ICCRS 'love in action' conference in S Korea. Clearly in that nation CCR is a strong current of grace flowing from their deep commitment to intercessory prayer. This grace is made visible through the mission that the Holy Spirit has put into their hearts and there are many projects and services undertaken by those involved in Renewal. In contrast, in some parts of the world it seems that Renewal is perishing, it has grown old and tired and people seem to spend more time nostalgically looking back at what the Lord did in the past than moving forward into the new things that the Lord has in store for them.

In the early days of CCR, we saw the Lord do many wonderful things in our midst. Thankfully this is still happening in many places.

I think of the courageous evangelization project in the Amazon and the creative outreach to university students currently being undertaken by CCR in Brazil I sense that at this time of transition there is a strong call to deep intercession. Many battles are won in prayer. Through intercession, God can change the destiny of a nation. He can give us the insight, courage and ability to act decisively and strategically so that his Kingdom is advanced. As we journey towards the golden jubilee of CCR in 2017, we need to be guided step by step. Like Joshua we need to have the faith and confidence to claim our rightful inheritance and to undo the works of the enemy. Be ready then to embrace this new season with courage and enthusiasm. Our God is doing new things and we need to be open to the surprises of the Spirit.

~Excerpts from ICCRS Newsletter by Michelle Moran, elected as President of ICCRS and appointed as a member of the Pontifical Council of the Laity in 2008

There is tremendous power in the Word of God

WEAPONS FOR SPIRITUAL WARFARE

We hear of so many today going through spiritual warfare.

In order to win the war, it is absolutely essential that the warrior should go on the offensive. The weapons at the disposal of the warrior are:

The weapon of prayer: "Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication" (Eph 6:18)

The weapon of praise: "Let the high praises of God be in their throats..." (Ps 149:6-9)

The weapon of proclamation of the Word: there is tremendous power in the Word of God and it invariably accomplishes its mission (Is 55:11; Jer 23:29; Heb 4:12).

Also, seek prayer from others to win this battle.

WHAT IS THE LORD SAYING TO US?

At our meetings while in prayer the following is what we sense the Lord is saying to us.

Proclaim My Word, pray for others, heal the sick. When you lay your hands on the sick - they are my hands. Let the Flame burst out. There is a new phase in our lives where

He is extending His power. He intercedes for us and protects us daily, all we need to do is totally depend on Him. He is our Rock. He calls us to be holy. "I have many blessings to pour out upon my people, blessings like you have never seen before".

WHY GO TO A CONFERENCE

Here are a few of the comments we received.

-“I thoroughly enjoyed the conference and felt like I was returning home.”

-“I had a very serious liver disease and I was healed when a speaker laid hands on me.”

-“I have had back problems for a very long time. Last night when I was prayed with by a speaker, I experienced healing and no more pain. I know Jesus heals.”

-“I struggled with depression and fear of death and went deeper into depression after having a miscarriage. When invited to come up for prayer, I was able to raise my hands in worship for the first time. Wow! I was completely set free of my fears of death, set free from depression. In my heart I heard Jesus say “I will never leave you.” I have not been the same since. My journey after that conference has been awesome. I am free.”

-“People have been talking about it all over town. It was just unbelievable for them.”

I think we all know why we love to go to conferences & seminars, because the Lord loves us and wants to reach out and touch us. P.T.L.

STRENGTHENING PRAYER GROUPS

“Strengthening Prayer Groups” is a new book featuring a collection of articles on vision, praise and worship, evangelization, healing, fostering charisms, and suggestions in how to have vibrant meetings all within the context of the prayer group. It’s a resource not only for prayer group leaders but also for those who participate in the group and in the prayer meeting, that all may glean a deeper sense of how we might serve God through the prayer meeting and how God would so abundantly bless us in return.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

On August 16, 1978, Fr. Oh, who is a founder of Kkottongnae found a dying old man who had fallen into a coma on the bridge called Jordan Bridge. Although many cars and people passed him by, nobody tried to help him, just as in the parable of the Good Samaritan (Lk 10:30-35). Since his childhood, Fr. Oh had always tried to help beggars or people on the street, so he stopped his car to take a look at the man. As he was taking the old man to the hospital, he heard these words from Heaven, "Could another day be more joyful and delightful than today? With great joy indeed, I thank you for saving the life of my beloved son. I will make a new covenant with you. I will take care of everything else if you receive the least of my brothers in my name." At that very moment, he experienced deeply that his action had truly pleased God. Since then, whenever Fr. Oh took the sick or homeless into his care, everything that was needed for their care began to appear: food, clothing, volunteers, money, and other necessities.
